days are coming to Topeka. They're coming, not solely upon the choice of the patriotic housewives of the city, but on the part of the hotels and restnurants.

Since Her ert Hoover, federal food administrator, has made his suggestions concerning the conservation of wheat and meat for the soldiers in France and for the people as a whole thruout the country, the eating houses thruout the country, the eating houses in the east have adopted two and som times three days a week on which the menu handed the diner was without wheat and meat.

G. B. Jones, manager of the Throop hotel, took up the movement in Topeka, as a leader for palate patriotism today. Calls by the State Journal upon other large hotels and restnur-
